WILLIAM L. BALLENGER

1987 - 2004

Coming to OSU in 1987 after a stint as the director of the Cornhusker Marching Band at the University of Nebraska, William Ballenger quickly took the OSU band program in a new direction, increasing participation and setting the foundation for the current state of the band program.

Mr. Ballenger served as Associate Director of Bands until 1992, when he relinquished his responsibilities with the marching band and concert band to Glen Hemberger. Following this move, Ballenger became head of the music department, a position he held until his departure from OSU in 2004.

Mr. Ballenger is currently the director of the School of Music at Texas Tech University.

WAYNE E. BOVENSCHEN

1987 - PRESENT

Hired in 1987, Wayne Bovenschen continues to serve as Associate Professor of Percussion and Assistant Director of Bands at OSU. During his tenure, he has served as assistant director of the Cowboy Marching Band, director of the Spirit Band, and instructor for numerous percussion ensembles.

Under Mr. Bovenschen's direction, the OSU Concert Percussion Ensemble was selected as one of two university ensembles to present a showcase concert at the 1996 Percussive Arts Society International Convention in Nashville, Tennessee. The OSU Marching Percussion Ensemble has participated numerous times in the PASIC Marching Percussion Forum, placing as high as second in 2001 in Nashville, TN.

The Spirit Band has become one of the country's most recognizable basketball bands, in large part due to Mr. Bovenschen's work as its conductor. It continues to be a positive ambassador for OSU bands to the entire country.
